ABSTRACT

The purpose of this research was to study 1. To develop the fabric pattern from Lao Song textile, and 2. To apply the fabric pattern from Lao Song textile in creating lifestyle fashion merchandises. Lifestyle fashion merchandise design by the Lao Song fabric pattern is empowering pattern design, with its excellent and appealing identity worthy to preserved and to passed on to the next generation to maintain its identity and be more recognized. Lifestyle fashion merchandises of the Lao Song group of Suphan Buri province are currently releasing additional products with a simple design. From surveying community leaders in the field study, the author had implemented these issues from the interview in creating products and in modifying the merchandise to meet various fashion utilities over time.
